

“More lambs, More often”

Bullet proofing your business against variable seasons

FREE WORKSHOP – TWO LOCATIONS

Since its roll out in August 2014 there have been over 100 workshops with 1600 participants. Participants have been very satisfied with the workshop which has received an overall satisfaction rating of 8.1 out of 10. More than 90% of participating sheep producers indicated that they would change their management a direct result of the workshop.

Facilitator - Dr Steve Cotton from Dynamic Ag Consultancy

Objectives:

- What drives climate variability
- Setting strategies that enable sheep business to be more flexible in varying seasons
- Practical on farm tactics for coping with late breaks and failed springs
- Breeding a more flexible sheep
- Ewe Condition Score targets for variable seasons
- What are the attributes of a resilient business

Thursday 10th November 2016

WesternAG Ballarat

25 Carnham Road, Delacombe VIC
Katrina Ridgway – 0409 741 427

Thursday 17th November 2016

WesternAG Willaura

2610 Moyston – Willaura Road, Willaura VIC
Jackie Elliott – 0439 541 036

Workshop details: 8:45am for 9:00am Start until 3:30pm

Workshops will run for approx. 6 hrs. Morning Tea, Lunch & drinks provided.

RSVP required for catering purposes.

